Tugas Pertemuan 4 Mern Stack

Visual Studio Code interface showing a MERN STACK project. The Explorer sidebar on the left displays the file structure, including folders like 'backend', 'node_modules', and 'my-first-app-react'. The main editor area shows the 'index.js' file with JavaScript code for Express.js, including CORS configuration and database connection setup. The Terminal at the bottom displays the output of running 'npm run dev' and 'npm install axios', showing the application is ready on localhost:3000. The status bar at the bottom indicates the current file is 'index.js' and the project is open in the 'MERN STACK' workspace.

Web browser window showing the URL 'localhost:3000'. The page content displays 'Hello World!!' in a large, bold font.
